

Celebrate 10 years of online creativity!

In March 1994 Glass Wings was launched into the realm of international, electronic, networked publication. When other literary digazines have folded we have managed to maintain continuous publication over the years. Our Web site regularly receives as many as 300,000 hits a month. We feel that a decade of sponsoring creative endeavour online is worthy of celebrating.

You are cordially invited to attend our festivities, so that we may show our appreciation to you and others who have supported Glass Wings. We will be having cake, hors d'oeuvres, quality Brittany cider, and plenty of interesting and creative people with whom to chat.
